A 100 dollar bill, partially folded, with the text "FOR MOTION PICTURE PURPOSES" and "COPY" visible. The bill is white with blue and red accents. The portrait of Benjamin Franklin is visible on the left side. The text "100" is printed in large blue digits on the left. The text "FOR MOTION PICTURE PURPOSES" is printed in large, bold, black letters across the center. The word "COPY" is printed in large, bold, blue letters on the right. The bill is folded in a way that creates a sharp crease across the middle. The background is a solid light blue.
